Prince of Tennis Volume 23 Thanks for all your support.

Before I realized it, the number of lovable characters had increased at an alarming rate. I've still got a ways to go before I reach my 100th character, but I will keep working hard at it!! And each one of these characters received a mountain load of chocolates along with a heartfelt message. What a bunch of lucky guys. I thank you all in their stead... (LOL) Last year we were too busy to tally up and announce the results, so this year we worked even harder!! At the end of this volume the Rankings for the Valentines Day Chocolates are announced, so please enjoy. Many people have supported me throughout the Kantou Tournament and it's finally down to the Championship match. I'll do my best to finish the Rikkai Dai Fuzoku Arc with a bang, so please give me your continued support!! And for those of you who think that the "Prince of Tennis" will end once the Kantou Tournament is over, I have one word for you: NAIVE! The action's just starting to heat up! I'll do my best on the Nationals as well. Please continue to watch over the growth of these characters.

Well then, what should I surprise you guys with next year? (Evil Grin)

Hope to see you again in the next volume!!
